Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1-2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Jayam et al. (hereinafter "Jay", US Patent 6,760,769 B2).

As per claim 1, Jay discloses a method of offering preferred transport in a network, the method comprising:

receiving a first part of a content transmission (column 19, lines 28-32);

receiving an indication of transport parameters, the indication being associated with the content transmission (column 19, lines 18-20, 36-38);

transmitting the second part of the content transmission in accordance with the transport parameters (column 19, lines 43-47).

As per claim 2, Jay discloses a transmission device comprising:

a data receiver configured to receive a first part of a content and an indication of transport parameters associated with the content (column 19, lines 11-20); a service logic for grouping the first part of the content and subsequent parts of the content as a communications flow (column 19, lines 16-22);

a transmission logic for determining the transmission parameters of the content according to the indication of transport parameters (column 19, lines 23-26);
a switching apparatus for transporting the first part and subsequent parts of the content to a communications port according to the communications flow determined by the service logic (column 19, lines 35-45);
a data transmitter configured to transmit the subsequent parts of the content in conjunction with the communications port in accordance with the transmission parameters determined by the transmission logic (column 19, lines 45-57).

Conclusion

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Barbara N. Burgess whose telephone number is (571) 272-3996. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F (8:00am-4:00pm).
